Full One Pound Box of Violet Talcum Powder for 25c at

A Safe, Simple System

The system of paying by check was devised by all men-for any man-for you. It is suited to the need of any business, either large or small. It makes no difference whether we pay out $10 or $10000 a month. A checking account will serve your needs.

Pay by check, the method puts system into your business and gives you a record of every transaction.

VALENTINE STATE BANK VALENTINE, NEBR.

VALENTINE BARBER SHOP

All kinds of

SHAMPOOS.

MASSAGES.

AND LADIES

HAIR DRESSING Shampooing a specialty.

HOT and COLD BATHS in connection

Forest Shepard, Prop. Valentine State Bank Building TANDANAN NA SA

T. J. Christopher, AUCTIONEER.

Will meet all calls-phone or mail

Versed on pedigreed stock. Nebraska trouble.

Talk of the Town.

Try Kazda's barber shop. Yank O'Bryan was in town the first of the week.

H. Buttinghaus was in town Monday on business.

A. B. Datus was a Valentine ness in town Monday. visitor the first of the week.

Henry, William and Dock Grooms were in town Monday.

William Redfern was in town from near Red Deer lake Monday.

Shinefine, a strange, new discovery is soon coming to town. 8 Tom Spratt was mingling with

Valentine friends the first of the

Dan Sears and A. H. Stees of Kennedy were in town the first of the week.

Noble Lunderman and Byron Barker were down from Rosebud the first of the week.

Mrs. W. T. Kincaid returned Tuesday night, from a visit with relatives back in Iowa.

The ladies of the M. E. aid will serve supper Friday evening at the home of Judge Walcott.

soon.

George Heath and John Smith of Norden hauled in corn Monday. Orvel Hayford hauled in a load of rye.

Clyde Cohee and Mrs. Mary Vaughn were married at Hot Springs, S D., recently. They live out near Oasis.

D. A. Hancock, H. A Lyons, N J Uck and W F. Parker of Woodlake, and J. P. Kreycik and Andrew Benson of Arabis, came up Tuesday to attend a Masonic meeting and banquet in our city, at which there were several new members initiated.

John Lynde, traveling agent for the Nebraska Underwriters Fire Ins. Co., of Omaha, was in town from Saturday until Monday the past week visiting I. M. Rice, local agent of that company. This is one of the strong Nebraska insurance companies, with assets of nearly a quarter of a million of dollars.

Charles Latta came in from Oasis to get a load of coal and feed Tuesday and transact other business. He says stock is doing well and people, mostly, are in good health, but there has been considerable sickness around. River 'Stillwell's family have the whooping cough. J. E. Thackrey's children have the mumps. W. H. Kennedy's boy, Sammy, has had a serious time with pneumonia. Mrs. Richard's children had bad colds. Alex McAlevy's son, Tommy, has had a serious time with the grip, but is better. Most of the sickness is past seriousness Mrs. Elias Stillwell is

We wish to announce to our friends that we have the exclusive sale of the John Deere Plow Co's goods in this vicinity. We now have the largest and most complete stock ever shown here, including

John Deere Plows, walking sulky and gang. Listers, walking, single and double row.

Disk Harrows, with or without tongue trucks, Lever Harrows, Riding and Walking Cultivators, Corn Planters, Hoosier End Gate Seeders and Press Drills, Success Manure Spreaders, Economy Pitless Scales, Sharples Tubular Cream Separators, Samson Windmills, Fort Smith and New Moline Wagons. The celebrated Velie Wrought Iron Buggies and Spring Wagons.

All of this is bright, new stock. No carried over or out of date goods. Prices and terms reasonable. Come and see us.

Valentine Lumber Co.

A. E. MORRIS, W. W. MORRISSEY, J. T. KEELEY, DR. O. W. NOYES Located in buildings formerly occupied by W. T. Bishop as a feed and sale barn

John Grooms was in town the first of the week visiting his Old Crow,

Robert Dyer, an old timer of Hermitage Rosebud, spent several days in town the past week.

Joe Thompson and A. E. Spall of Simeon were transacting busi-

Charley Firth, from out on the Schlagel, was in town Monday. heimer He lives on the old Doty farm.

Barney Denaeyer, sr., was in Rye town Monday and told us that he was going to Rich Hill, Mo., soon,

Ed Lewis of Woodlake was in town Monday and informs us that he has made a deal for the Norden hotel and expects to go over and take charge of it soon.

The state questions for the eighth grade final examinatins are now in the office of the county superintendent. Teachers may have them by writing for them.

Lon Mosher was in town Monday and called to renew his subscription to THE DEMOCRAT, and ordered THE DEMOCRAT sent to his brother Charley at Sundance, Wyo.

Sunday school at 10 a. m., follow-Just wait until you see what ed by a holy celebration of the Holy Shinefine will do for you? A Communion with sermon, at 11 on strange, new discoverd. Coming Sunday, next; 2nd Lent March 7th; Shell. Vesper service with address at 7:30, at Jt. John's church.

> the Barthalomew Co. at Peoria, was opened on Tuesday of this Ill., was considered to be mechanically the most correct, the simplest, and most durable car of all visited with Florence Pettijohn at T W. C AME that was shown at the great show at Chicago.

Do you want to go to college? If | us on our way to Atkinson. so we can help you. We have already put hundreds through college by means of our plan. Write today for full information regarding our offer of a free scholarship in any school or college. Address, Robert J. Sherlock, 29 31 East 22nd St., New York City.

The Ainsworth Star-Journal comes out this week with a souvenir edition, containing a writeup of the town and numerous Brown Co. citizens. It is a big undertaking, and the paper is well gotten up, with numerous illustrations of farm houses and residences. Brother Cotton, we congratulate you.

Jack Pouten is a good-hearted fellow and was in town Monday greeting his friends and enjoying a good time. Jack says he was here before there was any town. He was something of a ball player in the early days. Jack means out of school this year to teach, is well but is often misunderstood. He lives eight miles south of chasing a few shares in the new town, near the Schlagel.

Mrs. Charles Pollard and Mrs. Ella Davis spent a couple of weeks visiting Mrs. Hooton and Miss Rosa at the Valentine hotel, and returned last Saturday, Mrs. Pollard to Chadron and Mrs. Davis to Billings, Mont. They were called here on account of the serin Hot Springs doctoring for liver lious illness of Mrs. Davis' daughter who lives with Mrs. Hooton.

> Wanted-Success Magazine re quires the services of a man in Cherry county to look after expir ing subscriptions and to secure new business by means of special methods unusually effective; position permanent; prefer one with experience, but would consider any applicant with good natural qualiwith commission option. Address,

Frank J. B. Higgin returned from a two month's visit with relatives and friends in Liverpool, England, last Thursday. Frank came over with Ted Ormesher and wife eight years ago and this was his first visit back to the home to get back here to live:

Guchen-

Whiskeys.

Bottled Under the Supervision

All Leading

Brands

of the

U. S. Gov.

We also handle the Budweiser Beer.

THE PALACE SALOON JOHN G. STETTER, Propr.

School Itotes

Mrs. Emma Vincent and Miss Allie Cyphers made a pleasant call at our home one day last week.

James Lewis, who is in Seattle, Wash., sends us his compliments and a souvenir, "Seattle in a Clam

Both Roy and Hazel Graham have taken shares in the new The Glide Automobile built by building and loan series, which

> Mary Easley and Helen Sparks Longpine last Friday, and on Sat-It urday morning joined the rest of Misses Nellie Collet and Carrie Stetter were inspecting the vacant lots south of Mr. Bates on Tuesday morning in the hopes of ! finding a suitable location for a tennis ground,

Miss Jessie Holley of Plainview who was principal of the Valentine high school last year, is expected to arrive in Valentine on Friday of this week to visit a few days with Miss Gordon.

Kan., one of the first graduates of the V. H. S., writes of her home in Kansas, and says she expects to visit Valentine again soon. All who were fortunate enough to have had her for a friend in girl- Adamson, Marie Christensen and hood days will delight in giving her a hearty welcome.

Winnie Keeley, who dropped doing a most sensible thing in purbuilding and loan series. The only possible way a young woman can save anything out of her meagre salary as teacher is to have some place to put a few dollars each month where it can not slip away from her.

Mr. and Mrs. Walther Meltendorff entertained the teachers of the high school and the senio rs on Friday night, Feb. 19 at 5 o'clock dinner. Each guest felt that the inner-man had been well looked after by the hostess, in the excellent dinner served; after which followed an evening long to be remembered, filled with music, recitations and pleasant conversa-fications; salary $1.50 per day, pupil of the V. H. S., called to see us last week and is one of the realm of womanhood. She's a with references, R. C. Peacock, room many former pupils who never princess among the toilers. Her 102, Success Magazine Bldg., New misses a chance to renew old hands may be stained by dish-8 2 friendships. We appreciate, more washing, sweeping, printers' ink than words can tell, the almost or factory grease. But they are constant reminders, either by honest hands. They stay misword or letter, of the many true fortune from the home; they supfriends we have among the gradu- port the invalid loved one, mayates who are now scattered thru- be, they are moving, potent out the United States.

of his youth. He says times are es decided against them in the dehard and thousands out of em- bate in Atkinson last Saturday eveployment in England. Also that ning, the young people returned business is very dull back there home Sanday morning in the best now and that people here are do- of spirits. They received many ing much better than in other compliments from all they met as places where he has been. He en- to the excellent manner in which joyed a splendid visit, but is glad they presented their side of the subject; and especially on the man-

New Hotel. Good Rooms.

Electric Lights. Hot and Cold Water.

Chicago House

NEAR DEPOT

Mrs. S. A. Sears, Propr., Valentine, Nebr. Calls for all trains. Rates $1 per day,

Done in the most satisfactory manner! Largest prices for the seller and honest dealing with the bidder! On these terms T. W. Cramer solicits your patronage. Graduate of Missouri Auction School, August term. VALENTINE NEB

GRANT BOYER,

CARPENTER & BUILDER.

All kinds of wood work done to order. Stock tanks made in all sizes Residence and shop one block south of passenger depot.

Valentine.

PHONE 72 References: My Many Customers.

Nebraska

ner in which they took their defeat. The young people made Democrat to Geo. A. Miles of the many friends by exhibiting traits Mrs. Edith Cowden of Garnett, of character not always to be found in the makeup of boys and > girls of their age. Besides the debating team, consisting of Charles Helzer, Edith Mary Easley, the following persons went to Atkinson last Saturday to be present at the debate between Valentine and Atkinson: Mr. and Mrs. Meltendorff, L. C. Sparks, Prin. John Mohlman, Misses Allie Cyphers, Helen Sparks and Laurentia Haley; Eddie Cohota, Clarence Haley, Jesse Holselaw and Supt. R H. Watson.

The Girl Who Works.

God bless the girl who works! She is not too proud to earn her own living, nor ashamed to be caught at her daily task. She smiles at you from behind the desk, counter or printer's case. There is a sweet memory of her in everything she touches. She is like a brave mountaineer, already far up the precipiceclimbing, struggling, rejoicing. The sight is an inspiration. It is an honor to know this girl and be worthy of her esteem. Lift your Mrs. Chas. Pollard, a former hat to her, young man, as she passes by. She is a queen in the shields that protect many a fam-Although two of the three judg- lily from the poor house. God bless and protect the gril who works.-Terrell (Texas) Trans-

J. W. McDaniel,

All work will be given prompt and careful attention.

Ed S. Eves has sold the Holt Co. Holt Co. Independent and retired from newspaper work in Holt Coun-

MBER

Lath, Shingles, Doors, Windows, Paper, Patent Roofing Tar Paper, Paints, Oil, Varnish, Brushes, Glass, Putty, Lime, Coment, Plaster, Brick, Posts, Poles.

We Sell Hudson Coal BISHOP & YOUNG,

The Loup Valley Hereford Ranch. Brownlee, Nebr.

Soldier Creek Cola son of Columbus 17th, a half brother pion Dale, and Prince Boabdel 131,-393 at head of herd

C. H. FAULHABER,

Contest Notice.

U.S. Land Office, Valentine, Nebraska. this life on or about the 21th day of December 1906, that during his life he never established to be erected improvements of any character of or cause to be cultived the land embraced in his s id homestead entry; nor did hacure his lackes That more than six months has elapsed since the death of the said Charles W. Bailey, and his heir at law nor any of the said hetes at law ave established residence upon said tract of and nor have said heirs at law or any of them ultivated the tract of land in any manner embraced in said entry; that there is not now nor has there been at any time since the date of said entry any improvements of any kind or decription placed upon said land, either by entryman during his life time or by his heirs at law since his decease, and the land embraced in said entry is now wild and uncultivated land; that the said heirs at law and any and all of them have failed to cure their laches up to the date of the initiation of this contest Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allega-tion at 10 o'clock a. m., on April 18, 1909, before the register and receiver at the United States Land Office in Valerane, Nebraska. The said contestant have a in a proper affidayit, filed March 2, 1969, so forth facts which show that after due diliger. Nebr. of this notice cannot be taide, it is hereby ordered that such notice be given by die and proper publication.

E. ULSUN, Redelver.